Due to the still lasting restructuration, an error occurred when the URL of the Flash based body of [R][R][F]200x--->XP was updated recently, resulting that the body did not load and this basic part of the project was not available for some time.

The finalization - an announcement

July 25th, 2006

The RRF project environment will be completed and finalized by the end of 2006.

Starting in 2003 and set up definitely in 2004 as a big experiment, RRF was developing and running for more than three years successfully and was presented in most different constellations more than 50 times. Through RRF, art on the net got a new meaning and reference and showed the spectrum of a rich art working by using the online environment as a serious platform for creating contemporary art.

The official finalization will take place on occasion of the launch of RRF v.3, SoundLAB Edition 4 and the latest VideoChannel selection "image vs music" in the framework of its presentation on DIGITAL ART FESTIVAL Rosario/Argentina - 16-18 November 2006.

RRF will be renamed for permanent to [R][R][F]200x---XP and received already a new permanent URL --->

Violence Online 2006

July 20th, 2006

Bombs in Lebanon?

Conflict in Middle East??

No problem!

Violence Online

<http://violence.newmediafest.org/startviolencey.htm>

is a New Media art project in form of an online festival.

More than 350 artists

(see also <http://violence.newmediafest.org/parti.htm>)

reflect the phenomenon of violence in all its facets.

The project is constructed in form of a virtual media company named Violence Media Inc.

consisting of numerous departments like

Violence TV, Violence For Happiness, Violence Playstation, Violence Picknick Basket etc.

The project started in 2002 as a collaborative project initiated, created and organised by Agricola de Cologne,

In 2004, it became a part of the global networking project
[R][R][F]200x--->XP
[Remembering–Repressing–Forgetting]
and was until these day presented on numerous festivals and art events around the globe.

The media celebrate violence as that what is the best form of relaxing and enjoying life, while speechlessness and the inability to communicate are spreadings around!

Violence Online Festival is still and again and again
the best way for celebrating violence, just enter and enjoy!
